FLOOR DEBATE

February 13, 2003 LR 16

would rather, or she would rather have. Do you want to keep your employment, or keep your seat in the Legislature? You cannot keep both. You decide which direction you're going to go.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay. Thank you. I believe that's all I have. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Smith. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you,...

SPEAKER BROMM: And, Senator Chambers, this will be your third time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm aware. When I answer these hypothetical questions, you have to realize that I'm not the court, and I'm just giving the best answer that I can come up with based on cases that I've read. Somebody raised an interesting question to me--what is NPPD? Is NPPD a state agency? I don't think it is. It was created by statute. It is, to my way of thinking, a political subdivision. I would like to ask Senator Schimek a question.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Schimek, people who are on the NPPD board...NPPD is run by a board. Is that correct?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And the board members are elected.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are they elected by district or at large, if you know?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I believe district, but I'm not going to say
